FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Dane County.
2. The agency issued a notice of W2 overpayment
3. The agency held a fact-finding hearing on 8/25/14. There was a negative determination for petitioner. The agency determination of overpayment was upheld. On 8/29/14 a decision was issued and sent to petitioner informing her of her right to a fair hearing on the correctness of the overpayment determination and that she would need to request the hearing within 45 days. Petitioner did not appeal the overpayment determination.

4. On 5/15/15 the PACU issued a tax intercept notice to petitioner.
5. Petitioner filed a request for fair hearing on 5/28/15.

DISCUSSION

Wis. Stat., §49.85(2)(b), provides that the department shall, at least annually, certify to the Department of Revenue the amounts that it has determined that it may recover resulting from W-2 and child care assistance overpayments.

The Department of Children and Families must notify the person that it intends to certify the overpayment to the Department of Revenue for setoff from his/her state income tax refund and must inform the person that he/she may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing. Id. at §49.85(3)(b).

The hearing right is described in Wis. Stat., §49.85(4)(b), as follows:

If a person has requested a hearing under this subsection, the department ... shall hold a contested case hearing under s. 227.44, except that the department ... may limit the scope of the hearing to exclude issues that were presented at a prior hearing or that could have been presented at a prior opportunity for hearing.

The Department is required to recover all overpayments of public assistance benefits. Requests for fact finding reviews of actions to recover W-2 benefits must be filed within 45 days of the action. Wis. Admin. Code, §DCF 101.22(1). Appeals of tax intercept notices must be filed within 30 days of the notice. Wis. Stat. §49.85(3)(a)2.

Petitioner seeks to have the original overpayment reversed in this appeal. She testified that she did not file a request for hearing from the original action. She explained that she took the time to get all her documentation together and that she did not have any other explanation.

Petitioner's right to appeal the underlying basis for the overpayment is untimely. Petitioner did not argue that she is not the person against whom the claim is sought. Petitioner did not argue that she has paid the sum

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Any appeal of the merits of the overpayment is untimely.
2. The tax intercept notice was not issued in error.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That this appeal is dismissed.
